SACBO REWARDS EMPLOYEES WHO HAVE COMPLETED 20 YEARS OF ACTIVITY

In the executive offices of SACBO, an award ceremony took place in recognition of 20 years of activity for a number of employees of the airport management company. The president of SACBO, Roberto Bruni, the director general, Emilio Bellingardi, and the CEO of BIS, Amelia Corti, presented eleven certificates. Six were for members of SACBO personnel, and five from the subsidiary BIS (BGY International Services). "All are united by a spirit of loyalty towards their jobs and the company, and by the professionalism placed at the service of the airport's activities, contributing to reaching ever higher and more qualified objectives" - underlined the SACBO directors.

The list includes:

Sara Capelli, secretary to the directors

Giacomo Cattaneo, commercial aviation director

Andrea Camozzi, maintenance mechanic

Fabiano Galasso, airport operational coordination worker

Monica Limonta, warehouse management worker

Sergio Negroni, electrician

The names of the five BIS employees are:

Stefano Avitabile, airport ticket office clerk

Luca Di Bernardo, airport vehicle operator

Francesca Di Mento, passenger shift manager

Gianluca Perico, airport vehicle operator

Lorenzo Tagliabue, flight operations worker
