

NEW VUELING ROUTE FROM MILAN BERGAMO TO BARCELONA

Offering special flights for the Christmas period, the route will also be operative for the 2020 summer season

Milano, 13 December - Vueling is relaunching the Milan Bergamo-Barcelona El Prat route for Christmas, providing special flights for 21, 24, 26 and 28 December 2019, as well as 1 and 6 January 2020. Following last year's success, Vueling has decided to once again make this route operative in response to the growing request for connections between the two cities, particularly for the holiday period.

Bookings are already open on the website www.vueling.it and will provide an opportunity for all Italian passengers to spend the Christmas holidays in the mild climate of the wonderful Catalan city.

"Certain to satisfy the ever-growing number of passengers at the third most-important Italian airport, as well others discovering the news, I am particularly happy with the choice made by the airline VUELING to regularly fly to and from Milan Bergamo Airport", stated Giacomo Cattaneo, director of aviation for SACBO. "Being a part of their network not only guarantees the strengthening of connections to Barcelona but also those with numerous destinations not reached directly from our airport".

But that is not all. As of summer 2020, Vueling will render the Milan Bergamo - Barcelona El Prat route operative on a daily basis with an availability of 75,600 seats.

In this way, passengers using the services will have the opportunity to take advantage of the numerous connections to Spanish destinations not served directly by the departure airport. The destinations reachable in connection with Vueling flights from El Prat airport include Algiers, Oviedo-Asturias, Bilbao, Granada, A Coruña, Menorca, Nice and Paris Charles De Gaulle.
