

RYANAIR LAUNCHES A NEW ROUTE BETWEEN MILAN BERGAMO AND BRNO IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC

Ryanair, the n.1 airline in Italy, today (13 July) announced a new route between Milan Bergamo and Brno in the Czech Republic, which will be operative with two flights per week from the end of October 2018 as part of the 2018/2019 winter scheduling.

Italian visitors and clients will be able to take advantage of even lower costs and the recent innovations offered by the “Always Getting Better” programme, including:

- Reduced charges for checked baggage - a tariff from € 25 for a 20 kg item of luggage
- Ryanair Rooms with 10% Travel Credit
- Ryanair Transfers - a wide range of land transportation options with the new partner CarTrawler
- Excellent punctuality - 90% of flights will be on time
- Guaranteed price - if you find a cheaper flight, the difference will be refunded to your MyRyanair account with an additional € 5 bonus

John F. Alborante, Sales & Marketing Manager Ryanair Italy, stated:

“Ryanair is delighted to announce a new route from Milan Bergamo to Brno, in the Czech Republic, which will be operative with two weekly flights from October 2018, as part of our 2018/2019 winter scheduling. Clients can now choose between 5 new winter routes from Milan Bergamo Airport to Amman, Faro, Tangiers, Palma and the brand-new route to Brno, a city in the Czech Republic, and from a total of 71 winter routes.

To celebrate, we are selling seats from as little as € 24.99 for flights between November and 14 December, bookable until midnight on Monday (16 July). As seats at these fantastic low prices will run out quickly, we invite all passengers to visit www.ryanair.com straight away to avoid missing out”.

For further information:

AIGO - Ryanair Press Office Italy

Alessandra Rischio - tel.: +39 02 669927 240 - mob: +39 344 0990468

Monica Velardita - tel.: +39 02 669927 208 - mob: +39 344 0995367

press@ryanair.aigo.it

