Speaking at Milan Bergamo airport, John F. Alborante, Ryanair's Sales & Marketing Manager for Italy, said:

"We are happy to celebrate the start of our Winter 2018/2019 programme from Milan Bergamo, which has already registered record bookings, with 6 new routes to fantastic destinations like Amman, Brno, Crotona, Faro, Palma and Tangiers, all starting from the end of October. We now offer a total of 74 routes which allow us to fly 10.5 million passengers a year.

From today, Italian customers and visitors can also book their holidays for Summer 2019, which are already on sale on ryanair.com, with even lower prices. There's no better moment to book a Ryanair flight.

To celebrate the start of the Winter 2018/2019 programme from Milan Bergamo, we have released seats on our European network starting from just €9.99, for travels before January 2019 and available for booking until midnight on Sunday (28th October). Since these amazing low fares will be snapped up quickly, customers should log onto www.ryanair.com and avoid missing out".

*Research carried out by ACI-Airport Council International confirms that for each million passengers there are 750 jobs created on-site in international airports.
