

THE MINISTER FOR INFRASTRUCTURE AND TRANSPORT DANILO TONINELLI VISITS THE SACBO EXECUTIVE OFFICES

Today saw a visit from the Minister for Infrastructure and Transport Danilo Toninelli to the executive offices of SCABO, the company managing Milan Bergamo Airport, where he was welcomed by the Managing Director Emilio Bellingardi who, together with the executive staff of the company, illustrated the new airport development plan and the programmes for infrastructural work both under way and scheduled aimed at bringing the airport in line with the needs of passenger movement.

Minister Toninelli acknowledged the positive values expressed by the airport in terms of financial results and employment, and in a later meeting with the press confirmed that the project to create a rail link between Bergamo station and the airport in Orio al Serio, for a length of 4.5 km, will be financed within the framework of the decree to promote construction works and completed within the time frame forecast by Rete Ferroviaria Italiana - the Italian Railway Network company - with the nomination of a commissioner who will oversee the works.
