

RYANAIR LAUNCHES A NEW ROUTE BETWEEN MILAN BERGAMO AND MENORCA FOR SUMMER 2021

Ryanair, the number one airline in Italy, announced today (18 May) the launch of a new summer route from Milan Bergamo to Menorca, which will be running twice weekly from July as an integral part of the summer 2021 schedule for the Italian market.

Italian customers can now book their summer holidays on one of the most famous islands in the Mediterranean at even lower fares, and with the possibility to take advantage of the “Zero Change Fee” in the event that their plans change.

To celebrate, Ryanair has launched a special offer with fares as low as € 19.99 for flights until the end of October 2021, which must be booked by midnight on Thursday 20 May from the Ryanair.com website.

The Commercial Director of Ryanair, Jason McGuinness, stated:

“With vaccination programmes continuing over the upcoming months and with the summer season around the corner, we are delighted to announce this new route from Milan Bergamo to Menorca, running twice weekly from July as an integral part of the summer 2021 schedule for the Italian market.

Ryanair customers can now book their well-deserved summer break with the certainty that if their plans change, they can reschedule their travel dates twice without paying the flight change fee until the end of October 2021, paying only any differences in price between the original and the new flight.

For the occasion, we have launched a special offer with fares from as little as just € 19.99 for flights until the end of October 2021. Flights must be booked by midnight on Thursday 20 April. As these incredible offers will be snapped up quickly, we invite our customers to visit www.ryanair.com in order to not miss out on the opportunity”.
