

RYANAIR LAUNCHES TWO NEW ROUTES FROM MILAN BERGAMO THIS SUMMER

Ryanair, the number one airline in Italy, announced today (14 June) another two new routes from Milan Bergamo: one to the airport of Aktion-Preveza (Greece), operative twice a week, as well as a domestic route to Comiso three times a week beginning in August, as part of Ryanair's domestic operations for summer 2021.

Italian customers can now book their summer holidays either abroad or in Italy, flying at even lower fares, and with the possibility to take advantage of the "Zero Change Fee" in the event that their plans change.

To celebrate, Ryanair has launched a special offer with fares as low as € 19.99 for flights until the end of October 2021, which must be booked by midnight on Wednesday (16 June) exclusively from the Ryanair.com website.

The Commercial Director of Ryanair, Jason McGuinness, stated:

"With vaccination campaigns continuing over the next few months and with the summer season just around the corner, we are delighted to announce two new routes from Milan Bergamo Airport, one to Aktion-Preveza airport (Greece) and a domestic route to Comiso starting in August as an integral part of Ryanair's domestic operations for summer 2021.

With the knowledge that the restrictions concerning COVID regularly change, Ryanair customers can now book their well-deserved summer break with the certainty that if their plans change they can reschedule their travel dates twice without paying the flight change fee until the end of December 2021, only paying any differences in price between the original and the new flight.

For the occasion, we have launched a special offer with fares from as little as € 19.99 for flights until the end of October 2021. Flights must be booked by midnight on Wednesday 16 June. As these incredible offers are snapped up quickly, we invite our customers to visit www.ryanair.com in order to not miss out on the opportunity".
