HiSky will commence flying from Milan Bergamo Airport from 20 December 2021

HiSky is a new airline that will soon be flying from Milan Bergamo Airport, where it will be operating three routes beginning on 20 December. HiSky, a Moldavian airline with a fleet of two 180-seat Airbus A320s and a 144-seat Airbus A319, will be running twice-weekly flights (on Mondays and Fridays) to and from Chisinau, where it has its operative base, as well as Targu Mures and Baia Mare in Romania. The flights to and from the two destinations in Romania will begin on 20 December, with the first flight taking off to Chisinau on 24 December.
