152 DESTINATIONS IN MILAN BERGAMO AIRPORT'S SUMMER 2026 SCHEDULE

The route network at Milan Bergamo Airport is expanding with the start of the summer flight season, which coincides with the introduction of daylight saving time from Sunday 29 March. Eight new destinations bring the total to 152 routes served by 23 airlines across 44 countries, along with increased frequencies on existing routes, both domestic—particularly to southern Italy—and international, especially to Spain and the United Kingdom.

Until 24 October 2026, scheduled flights at Milan Bergamo Airport will offer around 13 million seats, an increase of 9% compared to the Summer 2025 season.

The new destinations include Kuwait City, launching on 20 May with Jazeera Airways; Billund in Denmark with Norwegian Airlines; Rabat in Morocco and Lemnos in Greece operated by Ryanair; Oradea and Târgu Mureş in Romania and Skopje in North Macedonia with Wizz Air; and Prishtina in Kosovo with GP Aviation.

The 2026 season will be the first summer season to fully benefit, for the entire seven-month period, from the new departures area inaugurated on 25 November 2025, featuring expanded spaces and enhanced security checks with state-of-the-art X-ray screening equipment. New features are also available for passengers with reduced mobility, who will have access to an enlarged Sala Amica, designed to ensure maximum comfort.
