

PRESS RELEASE

ROBERTO BRUNI NEW PRESIDENT OF SACBO

The SACBO Board of Directors, appointed at the Shareholders' Meeting on 4th May for the three-year period 2017-2019, met at its headquarters in Grassobbio for the assignment of posts and the allocation of responsibilities.

The lawyer Roberto Bruni was elected as President, while the role of Vice President was assigned to Yvonne Messi and Ercole Galizzi. The other members of the Board of Directors are (in alphabetical order): Gianpietro Benigni, Fabio Bombardieri, Roberto Callieri, Giovanni Paolo Malvestiti, Laura Pascotto, Renato Redondi and Roberto Rio.

The SACBO Board has appointed the executive committee members Roberto Bruni, Yvonne Messi, Ercole Galizzi, Giovanni Paolo Malvestiti and Fabio Bombardieri.

Roberto Bruni, 68, works as a Criminal Lawyer. Formerly the mayor of Bergamo from 2004 to 2009, he is the Lombardy Regional Councillor (leader of the Patto Civico civic list, member of the First and Second Council Committee, and the Regulation Committee, as well as President of the Council for Elections).

At the time of being appointed as SACBO President, Mr Bruni addressed his sincere thanks to Miro Radici, who he succeeds and who has held the office for two consecutive mandates. Mr Radici's shared commitment with the members of the outgoing Board of Directors has allowed them to consolidate the role and function of the airport for the mobility and economy of the local area, as well as in the domestic and European air transport sector. Mr Bruni said that he was convinced that the skills and professionalism will continue to provide the airport with high quality levels and excellent operations, as well as making its activity more and more compatible with the local area.
